

stopsprawlmart.org

Take action. Stop retail sprawl in the Pioneer Valley.

Contact our Pioneer Valley agencies and let them know where you stand!

Contact the Pioneer Valley Planning Commission and urge them to get to use their very good "Valley Vision" regional plan more effectively, monitor traffic impacts, and require transit improvements.

Tim Brennan, Executive Director
tbrennan@pvpc.org
Gary Roux, Traffic Planner
gmroux@pvpc.org
Phone (413) 781-6045
info@pvpc.org
www.pvpc.org

Contact MassHighway District 2 and urge them to limit expansion of Route 9, demand traffic mitigation to protect side streets and access to existing business districts in Amherst and Northampton, provide pedestrian protection and crosswalks, improve safety. Ask to be notified whenever the District meets with a developer.

Albert Stegemann, MassHighway District 2 Director
Albert.Stegman@state.ma.us
811 North King St.
Northampton, MA 01060
Tel : (413) 584-1611
Fax : (413) 584-8194

Lionel Lucien, MassHighway Public/Private Development Department
Lionel.Lucien@state.ma.us
10 Park Plaza
Boston, MA 02116

Contact the Massachusetts Office for Commonwealth Development and urge them to oversee the project closely, particularly in the area of traffic impacts and wetlands. Urge them to require low impact design of buildings and landscaping, minimization of traffic impacts, etc.

Douglas Foy, Secretary, Office for Commonwealth Development
ofd@massmail.state.ma.us
Douglas.Foy@state.ma.us

Robert Mitchell, Special Assistant for Sustainable Development (former Amherst Planning Director)
Robert.Mitchell@state.ma.us

Contact the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection and urge them to limit runoff from this site -- the site feeds the swamp behind Stop & Shop, which provides flood control for Amherst. Urge

stopsprawlmart.org

Take action. Stop retail sprawl in the Pioneer Valley.

them to come out and look at the wetlands, which the developer has drastically underestimated in order to avoid wetlands regulations.

Robert McCollum Department of Environmental Protection,
Western Regional Office – Wetland Protection Program
436 Dwight Street
Springfield, MA 01103
TEL (413) 755-2217
robert.mccollum@state.ma.us

Craig Givens
craig.givens@state.ma.us

Robert Golledge, DEP Commissioner
Robert.Golledge@state.ma.us
One Winter Street
Boston MA 02108-4746
617-292-5500
<http://www.mass.gov/dep>

Contact Senator Stan Rosenberg and urge him to keep an eye on MassHighway, DEP and other state regulators:

TEL: (617) 722-1532
Stan.Rosenberg@state.ma.us

Contact State Reps in the region and let them know about the problems:

Rep. Peter Kocot, Northampton
Rep.PeterKocot@hou.state.ma.us

Rep. John Scibak, Hadley, Easthampton, South Hadley
John.Scibak@state.ma.us
Rep.JohnScibak@Hou.State.MA.US

Rep. Ellen Story, Amherst, Granby
Rep.EllenStory@hou.state.ma.us

Contact the Amherst and Northampton Planning Departments and urge them to work with the PVPC to help Hadley control the growth.

Amherst Planning Dept (413) 256-4040
planning@amherstma.gov
Jonathan Tucker Senior Planner, Interim Planning Director
tuckerj@amherstma.gov
Niels la Cour, Senior Planner
lacourn@amherstma.gov

stopsprawlmart.org

Take action. Stop retail sprawl in the Pioneer Valley.

Northampton, Wayne Feiden, Planning Director, (413) 587-1265
wfeiden@northamptonma.gov

Northampton Mayor Claire Higgins is a great ally. Here is her aide's email:
Karen Bellavance-Grace kbellava@northamptonma.gov

Peter Vickery, Governor's Council, is a strong advocate for labor – and Wal-mart's grocery store will threaten union grocery workers jobs at Stop & Shop
peter@votevickery.com

The Hadley Board of Selectmen ought to know where you stand:
Hadley Town Hall
100 Middle St
Hadley MA 01035
admin@hadleyma.org
info@hadleyma.org

The Hadley Planning Board should know how you feel:
Hadley Planning Board
1000 Middle St
Hadley, MA 01035
Planning@hadleyma.org

The Hadley Conservation Commission should be aware of wetland-related concerns:
100 Middle Street
Hadley MA 01035
conservation@hadleyma.org